charlotte de witte

Belgian DJ and record producer

Biography

Charlotte de Witte is a Belgian DJ and record producer, recognized for her “dark and stripped-back” style of acid techno and minimal techno. She's gained prominence in the electronic music scene, headlining global events and topping music charts. She founded the labels KNTXT and Époque.

 Early Career & Raving George:  Charlotte initially performed under the alias Raving George, before adopting her real name as she gained recognition.

 Record Label:  She launched the KNTXT label, which not only releases her own music but also hosts high-caliber events and radio shows.

 Global Recognition:  Charlotte has graced the covers of Mixmag and DJ Mag, and she was named Best Techno at the DJ Awards in 2019.

 Musical Style:  Her music is characterized by its intensity and stripped-down, aggressive sound, often incorporating melancholic elements.

 Collaborations:  She has collaborated with artists like Enrico Sangiuliano, with whom she also has a personal relationship.

 Recent Developments:  In 2024, she launched a new label called Époque, dedicated to remixes of iconic Belgian tracks.
