Biography

DJ Intalink, real name Kristian Piccoli, is a Melbourne-based DJ and producer with over 25 years of experience in the Australian dance music scene¹. Known for his intuitive crowd-reading and genre-spanning sets, he's played everything from disco and house to techno, dance pop, and progressive grooves⁴. He began producing in the early 2000s, working across analog synths, drum machines, and hybrid software setups. His production work includes countless original tracks and remixes, many released under Turnstyle Digital and showcased via his SoundCloud channel "Intalink Edits n Mixes"². Kristian is also one half of the ILL EAGLE Djs duo alongside DJ Rellik (Tim Trappett), a long-running collaboration that has dominated Melbourne dancefloors for decades³. Together, they've performed at venues across the city and recorded live sets for Stream Room Sessions and Turnstyle Digital¹. He's a regular contributor to Kiss FM's underground programming, including guest mixes for the LEKTRK collective, which features deep party bangers and poolside nu disco⁶.
