Naiyah

// Minimalistic, psychedelic, and progressive techno journey-maker □□□ //

Biography

Naiyah, born Natasha Newman, is an Australian DJ whose sets weave layers of minimalistic, psychedelic and progressive techno, drawing listeners into immersive sonic journeys[^1].

She has been hand-picked for Frisson Records' 2025 takeover, cementing her reputation as an up-and-coming talent on the national techno circuit[^1].

Her festival credits include Initiation Festival, Earth Frequency (as part of Love Camp) and Wizards of Kingston, alongside numerous club nights throughout New South Wales[^1].

Naiyah's live performances are noted for their dynamic interplay between driving percussion and hypnotic atmospherics, earning her a fast-growing following across the East Coast[^1].

Notable Releases

*

Gigs & Festivals Played

* Initiation Festival [Date NOT FOUND] * Earth Frequency (Love Camp) [Date NOT FOUND] * Wizards of Kingston [Date NOT FOUND] * Various NSW club events [Dates NOT FOUND]

News & Media Links

* NOT FOUND

Notes

* Affiliated with Frisson Records for the 2025 takeover launch[^1].

Links to external sites or press kits

[^1] Introducing… NAIYAH □ (Frisson Records social announcement via user input)