Ophélie Mercury

French-born, Melbourne-based techno DJ, producer, and label owner known for deep, emotive melodies and commanding dancefloor presence.

Biography

Ophélie Mercury is a French-born, Melbourne-based DJ, producer, and label owner renowned for her deep, emotive melodies and seamless techno sound. Starting her career in Parisian clubs, she quickly expanded to iconic European venues and major events including ADE in Amsterdam, Techno Parade Paris, and Ministry of Sound parties. In 2016, she relocated to Melbourne, making a significant impact on the Australian techno scene. In 2021, she became a resident DJ at Eat The Beat, sharing the stage with Reinier Zonneveld, John Summit, and Victor Ruiz. Her performances at major Australian events including Pure by Carl Cox, Festival X, Esoteric Festival, and Elements Festival have solidified her status as a must-see act. In 2025, Ophélie launched her own label, Echo of Eternity Records, and hosted her own party at Melbourne's New Guernica. Her track Floating on Cloud Nine reached number 4 on Beatport's Top 100 Releases, while her debut EP on Extent Records climbed to number 11.
